

(25)

NEGRO WELFARE LEAGUE
of
NEW JERSEY

June 7, 1917.

The Eighteenth meeting of the Friendly Visitors Committee was held on the above date. Mrs. Gregory presided.

Present: Mrs. Street, Mrs. Oliver, Mr. C. M. Brown, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Manroe, Miss Conley, Miss Stratton.

SHAW Mrs. Richardson reported that the children were sick. Woman able to be up but not able to get work. Measles quarantine makes it impossible for the girls to go out to work. Woman needs money for rent.

MURRAYS Family doing fairly well. Woman has been ill but is better now. Man earns about $2.25 per day. There are six in the family.

GOODWIN Man back in town. Had only received two dollars for a weeks work for which he has been promised five. The Municipal Bureau said that they would look into the matter. Miss Conley will call on the landlady and explain to her the possibility of getting the money through the Legal Aid.

WARD Woman was to go to the clinic for treatment. Nurse made only one visit, charged the woman fifty cents. Miss Conley will take the matter up with the Nursing Ass.

SPENCER Family off the minutes.

CARTER, Daniel. Mrs. Street will see him and find out what his Mother will do for him.

SPRADLEY Got shoes for the woman and will take her to the clinic on Tuesday. There is measles in the house.

STEWART Will ask woman to meet Mrs. Douglas at the clinic on Tuesday.

Motion made and seconded that the Gunn case be left to the Bishop and Mrs. Brown and not brought up in the Friendly Visitors Committee meeting. Carried.

Moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be given to Mrs. Scott for interesting us in the Church on Broome Street. Carried Miss Stratton asked the people to interest themselves in another little group of people who meet at 7 Bergen Street.

Mrs. Street, as chairman of the sociable committee, was asked to go to see the church people on Broome Street and see whether any arrangements could be made for holding the next sociable at their church on June 19, 1917.

Miss Stratton reported that Mr. McDougall would give credentials for limited time to anyone whose name was handed to him for collecting the pledges made at the mass meeting.

Motion was made and seconded that the committee on sociables sell the refreshments at future sociables instead of giving them away, and give the proceeds towards a relief fund. Carried.